

THE WARM RECOVERY

DIANAKOLAWOLE.SITE

AUG 2022-OCT 2022

Our Story

Started from two friends who wanted to share their love for poetry and Christ with others. We are humbled to touch the lives of many from across the world in more than 100 countries

Our Blog

Our blog is centered around Christ, hope, and empowerment. We believe that evangelism can be virtual but also impactful. We explore different mediums to communicate the same message about Jesus Christ.

About Us

DIANAKOLAWOLE.SITE is a community that explores social issues through poetry and writing. We aim to bless those around us through our words

MEET DIANA

Diana is the founder of DianaKolawole.Site and also DianaKolawole.Site. She is a creative by profession and a designer with a strategic eye. Her goal for the website is to bless people from across the world while drawing many to Christ.

Heavenly treasures

It's not a sunny day? Don't let that steal your joy.
Life isn't going to plan? Don't let that steal your hope for tomorrow.

Be grounded in the right things.

Don't cheapen your joy and hope in temporary things.

Fix your affection on the things above.

Lay Up Treasures in Heaven

19 "Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust[a] destroy and where thieves break in and steal, 20 but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys and where thieves do not break in and steal.

Matthew 6:19-20 ESV

Joy is...

If you believe the Gospel and all its remarkable claims about Jesus and what he has done for you and who you are in him, then nothing that happens in this world can actually get at your identity.

Identity. Some find it in their accomplishments, family and even money. But can anything surpass all these things? Can anything satisfy us beyond these things? My answer is yes. Jesus can.

Insecurities like attaching themselves to us when we don't focus our eyes on Jesus. Wonder how anyone could love us, or how we are not as happy as someone else. But what would you say if I told you, that true joy in Jesus supersedes happiness.

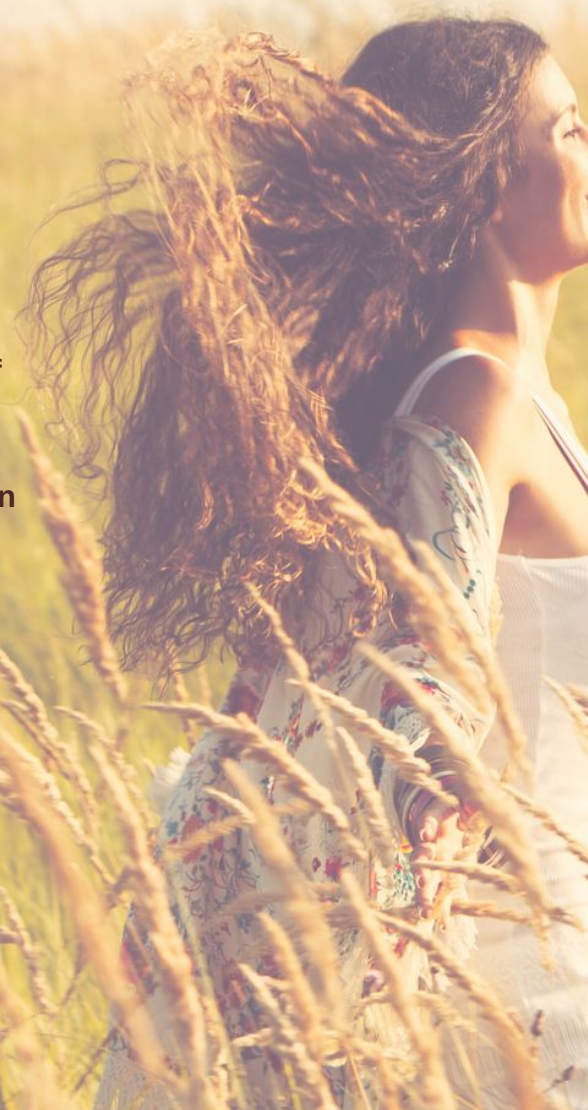

I'm talking about a man who came to this world, born of God and man to die for our sins. He came for the outcasts, the ones with drug addictions, pornography addiction and even the one who suffers from depression and anxiety. He came so that we can be free and live through him.

He was born in the most humble way possible and was bruised for our transgression so that, you could have eternal life. He came so that all that believe in him - as the Son of God would not die and perish in hell but, reign with him in heaven.

Joy comes from knowing who you are in Christ.

Understanding what he has done for us. Nothing can take that away or separate us from God's love.

It's by his mercies we are not consumed.

MEET CHUKWUDI

I love reading, writing, playing video games, playing guitar, listening to music, and hanging out with family and friends.

I see almost anything as an inspiration to write. I also love chatting in my spare time. My Christian faith is the most important thing to me.

WHAT HOPED FOR

Though what hoped for, tarries
My heart will be merry,
For what good comes from fear?
Save weariness and a tear

Though what hoped for, tarries
Songs of cheer, will I sing
Lots of smile, shall I share
Peace of mind, will be here

Though what hoped for, tarries
Needless despair comes to fore
But I chose in all of these
My joy will not cease

Though what hoped for, tarries
I am glad it will surely come
For so says the Holy Writ
And I find my peace in it

ENJOY LIFE...

Sounds distilled from Heaven's throne

Fills the early morn

If only we'd listen

Maybe we'll hear the bliss therein.

Surely, there is beauty around us

If only we'll open our eyes some more

Maybe we will have peace

Maybe it will help the weary one.

Take in joy and love

For in days of wistfulness

We strive to keep hope alive

For we trust that it'll only get better.

Weep not for the days gone by,

Seek to mend your broken heart

Take a deep dive in love's ocean

Let its currents lead you home

MEET RODERICK

I am a multi-discipline artist who enjoys writing short stories and creating content for both YouTube, Twitch and for my own website.

Additionally, I love gaming, socialising, and spending time reading my bible and family.

Keep Your Eyes On God

Some days we may find ourselves knee-deep in our daily routines or caught up in our schedules to realise we may be out of line when it comes to knowing God's purpose for the moment by moment events taking place in our life. It is crucial as a believer to recognise God's leadership and keep our focus on Him and His Word in order to sharpen our ears to listen to the Lord's voice.

As you read God's word today, redirect your attention to the Lord instead of your troubles, worries and concerns. Then, continue to walk moment by moment with the awareness of God's presence in your life, and remember to do that which pleases God rather than living to please others or yourself.

Finding Peace in a Dark Place

When the lights turn off around you, where do your thoughts go? The pressure to perform and strive in the world we are in is ever-growing but as we hustle we tend to forsake peace and instead be enslaved by the worry of our futures. With peace, we can trust again, develop love, learn to listen to others and even understand the purpose behind the darkness we find ourselves in.

Peace is hard to find in the dark, but with the light found in God's Word, we can get through any form of darkness. Whether it's depression, addiction or some other form of brokenness, know that you can have peace through it all if you stay close to God and lay your trust in the Lord's promises regarding your situation.

With Love...

Big thanks to you all for joining us once again for another addition to the ebook! This year is going by super fast but we hope you are all having a great time reading our content.

We give God all of our thanks for giving us the space to share personal, creative and spiritual written pieces to help inspire your day and aid you on your journey of life.

Be sure to lend us a hand in sharing our content and spread the word wherever possible.

Once again thank you for all the love you've shown to us this year, we hope to continue building our content to make an even greater impact on this community in the coming months, so stay tuned!

Lots of love from,

Diana Kolawole.Site team

Thank
You!
